Kings High School Seniors Participate in 9/11 National Day of Remembrance and Service with Habitat for Humanity Greater Cincinnati in Hamilton, Ohio

This year marks the 12th anniversary of the September 11, 2001, attacks that changed our nation forever. In the days and weeks that followed, our nation came together in an unprecedented spirit of community and commitment, and for the third year in a row, over 20 students from Kings High School Senior Class will travel back to Hamilton, Ohio to work on a Habitat for Humanity Greater Cincinnati (HFHGC) home build project. HFHGC Construction Manager Randy Wilkerson is looking forward the extra help and the opportunity to engage and spend time with a group of young people who truly understand the meaning of giving back and service. "The day itself may be difficult, with thoughts of where we all were when the attacks happened going through our minds, but when I see a bunch of kids piling out of a school bus excited and ready to do for others in remember of those who sacrificed their lives, I feel honored to be in their presence." Kings High School senior class member Chris Crabtree, who helped organized this year's Day of Remembrance service project, said "we realize the impact the men and women made on 9/11 and the least we can do is to give our time back to the community."
