

Habitat for Humanity Greater Cincinnati Repair Program Overview

Habitat for Humanity of Greater Cincinnati (HFHGC) has repair programs designed to help preserve homeownership for military-connected families and older adults. These programs help veterans, surviving veteran spouses, and older homeowners (age 60 and over) to create healthier, safer home environments by completing needed critical repairs and home improvements. HFHGC is dedicated to assisting qualified homeowners to help make their homes a safe and comfortable place to live. The programs serve homeowners across the Tri-State area and focus on accessibility improvements, code violations, and critical home repairs that help them live in their homes longer.

How Do Homeowners Pay for Repairs?

HOMEOWNERS PAY NO MONEY OUT OF POCKET FOR REPAIRS: However, we do ask that each homeowner participating in the HFHGC critical repair programs consider making donations now and in the future to help pay it forward and serve additional homeowners in need of critical repairs in the Tri-State area.

What Qualifies as an HFHGC Critical Repair?

Repairs that qualify as critical home repairs are interior or exterior work performed to alleviate critical health, life and safety issues or code violations. Examples of repairs but not limited to:

- Modifications or repairs to improve mobility, accessibility, and safety, such as tub-to-shower conversions, ramps, grab bars, and widened doorways.
- Exterior repairs such as roofs, gutters, and siding repair.
- Limited interior repairs such as furnace, hot water heater, electric, and plumbing repair.

WHAT REPAIRS ARE NOT INCLUDED IN THE REPAIR PROGRAM?

- Our repair programs do NOT include interior painting, cosmetic repairs, or full renovations
- Our programs are NOT an emergency repair program. If you have a severe repair need, we will do our best to work with you by referring you to another agency that may better fit your immediate needs.
